2. But, we would accept internal or external references that indicated that an individual was "looking;"
3. And, of course, we will also accept direct solicitation from a candidate (this will most likely come into play when an individual's peer has recently joined us).

Due to our partnerships, the following companies fall under the "Sensitive" companies list:

- AOL, Inc.
- AskJeeves, Inc.
- Clear Channel
- Earthlink, Inc.
- IBM
- Lycos
- NTL Incorporated

For each of these "Sensitive" companies we agreed to the following protocol:

1. Executive Recruiting: Inform EMG of any Director level or above candidate who we have engaged and who is starting the interview process at Google
2. Executive Recruiting: If we go to offer with a Director or above candidate, Staffing should inform EMG and EMG will designate a senior exec to place a courtesy call into the Sensitive company to let them know we have made an offer;
 - a. And by exception, when EMG deems necessary, calling into a Sensitive company to indicate we will be making an offer.
3. General Recruiting: For any non-exec position, we should be aware the company is on the Sensitive Company list but there are no restrictions to our recruiting from these companies at junior levels.

Please be cautious when recruiting teams from any company to keep our candidates and potential employees safe from legal action. Most companies have non-solicit agreements which would limit or prohibit a candidate from asking a coworker to interview with us as well.
